DETAILED ACTION

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. Claims 2-49 are allowed. These claims are to be renumbered 1-48.
2. The following is a statement of reasons for allowance:

Applicant's claimed invention is deemed allowable over the prior art of record as the prior art fails to teach a computer-implemented method of representing a mathematical transform between a binary output variable and a plurality of binary input variables on a computer display, the method comprising the steps of: separating the plurality of binary input variables into a respective plurality of fields, each field of the plurality of fields corresponding to a respective display level of a multi-level display format having a top display level and at least one lower display level; selecting a combination of the binary input variables of a first field of the plurality of fields, the first field corresponding to a first display level; identifying combinations of the binary input variables of a second field of the plurality of fields which affect the binary output variable for the selected combination of the binary input variables of the first field of the plurality of fields, the second field corresponding to a second display level lower than the first display level; displaying, on the computer display at the second display level, the identified combinations of the binary input variables of the second field of the plurality of fields in at least one collapsed combination map.

Citation of Pertinent Prior Art

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The following patents are cited to further show the state of the art with respect to system for aiding in the design of combinational logic and sequential state machines:

a. U.S. Pat. No. 5,748,497 to Scott et al., which discloses system and method for improving fault coverage of an electric circuit.

Conclusion

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
